

Taking Advantage of No-Cost Wellness...

Nan Maley, RN - Director of Corporate Wellness

Over 20 years of designing and implementing wellness programs.

“...extremely valuable... would be a compliment to any company looking to implement wellness programs and initiatives”

“...our annual flu shot clinic has morphed into a true wellness clinic to which our employees have responded very positively”

“...blood pressure checks, stress and BMI testing, provided handout material and answered employee health questions. Our employees were very engaged...”

“Nan the Nurse” partners with Sullivan Benefits’ clients looking to make Wellness a priority. Her unique background as both a nurse and former HR/employee benefits professional position her as an invaluable resource to help you meet your organization’s wellness goals and initiatives.
